ORDINANCE LANGUAGE

Sec. 70-10. Commercial districts.

In commercial districts, total signage allowed per premises shall not exceed ten square feet per lineal foot of building frontage. Accessory structures not housing primary business activities shall not be used in the calculation of maximum signage. Within the maximum signage allowed, the following regulations shall apply to all premises, which are not subject to a signage plan, approved pursuant to section 70-18:

(1) Church signs. All sign regulations applicable to business establishments shall also apply to churches.

(a) EXCEPTION: When religious services, including praise and worship services, for which no admission fees are charged are held at live theater locations, approved as “Special Uses” within one of the Sign Overlay Zone areas:

- 1) A maximum of two temporary signs, each a maximum of twelve (12) square feet in area, may be installed adjacent to each major street on which the theater has frontage and entrances.
- 2) All signs shall be located on private property and shall be for the purpose of informing visitors of the church service times and details.
- 3) Such temporary signs shall be installed on the property on which the services will be held
- 4) Such temporary signs shall be installed no sooner than the Friday before the service is to be held, and they must be removed on the Sunday after the completion of the service.
- 5) Such temporary signs shall be installed so as to prevent collapse or movement in high winds.
